REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE USE OF MILLSTONE 4-H CAMP

Groups using the facilities at Millstone 4-H Camp are responsible for adhering to these guidelines.

1. If a date is cancelled or there is a decrease in the expected attendance, the Director must be notified 30 days in advance. If not, a late cancellation fee of 50% will be assessed.
2. The person submitting the application must arrive in advance of the group to register with the Director or his representative to help with the registration and orientation of the group upon arrival, as well as a facility walk through. This same person is responsible for the facilities and the conduct of the group.
3. A charge will be made for breakage or loss of equipment (unless determined as normal wear). Groups are responsible to leave the camp clean and in order.
4. Swimming and canoeing is permitted when:
 - a. The group provides 2 currently certified American Red Cross Lifeguards to be on hand and responsible at each activity.
 - b. Life jackets are worn while in canoes – no exceptions.
 - c. Group is responsible for leaving canoes on racks, trailer, or in storage area. Paddles and life jackets are stored.
 - d. Swimming is permitted in the swimming pool only.
 - e. The Director will halt any activity that they consider to be unsafe.
5. Parking is permitted in the parking lot only. Cars will not be permitted on the grass or around buildings. Cars cannot be driven to the cabins!
6. No pets are allowed at the center.
7. Phones – Messages will be taken for those staying at the center; however, due to the large area to be covered, these messages are delivered to the individual responsible for the Group. Calls may be made on the phones in the camp, one is located in the kitchen pantry and the other is in the staff house. Calls must be made either collect or with a calling card.
8. Unless special arrangements are made in advance, rental groups are responsible for all program, staffing, and food service.
9. No alcohol or illegal drugs are permitted on the premises.
10. All groups are responsible for their own first aid needs.
11. All groups are responsible for leaving all facilities clean and trash placed in the dumpster.
